Foster's supermarkets have been an integral part of the community for four decades and last Thursday they finally opened their much-anticipated newest store – Foster's at Camana Bay.

In choosing the Camana Bay location, Managing Director Woody Foster said that Camana Bay was a growing and important part of Cayman and its ever-evolving community.

"Opening this store gives us the flexibility to better our approach to general customer offerings and prepared foods while allowing us to continue to offer service that makes you smile," he said.

Marketing Senior Manager Julian Foster said there is something for everyone in this new store.

Flashback: Bodden Towners celebrate their heritage

By Lindsey Turnbull

The Pirate's Week district heritage days were welcomed back this year, having been combined into one last year, and so it was with pride that the district of Bodden Town was able to showcase its heritage at their day last Wednesday. Children from schools such as Prospect Primary and Cayman Prep and High School were bussed in to the Nurse Josie Park in Bodden Town for the occasion, no doubt motivated by the enticing food that was on offer for all to enjoy.

As the first capital of the Cayman Islands, Bodden Town was once a central focus for Grand Cayman. The Nurse Josie Park is situated next to the Mission House, an important structure for the island now run by the National Trust for the Cayman Islands. Although the site was inhabited as far back as the 1700s, the site became particularly important the following century when the building was known as the Mission House to early missionaries, teachers and families who lived and contributed to es-

OAG: Government needs a long-term education strategy

► Sue Winspear, Auditor General

A recent report 'School Education' has just been released by the Office of the Auditor General reviewing how efficiently and effectively the Ministry of Education is using its resources to maximise student achievement, and the findings show that Government is spending huge amounts on educating Cayman's young people, but not getting a better-educated youth for all its efforts.

Specifically, the report outlined that spending on education was $86 million in 2018 - the largest percentage of total Government operating expenditure, at 12.7 per cent, and an increase of 17 per cent since 2014. The increase in expenditure was mainly due to increases in payroll (sal-

The legal daily limit for possession of whelks during the open season is two-and-a-half gallons in the shell or two-and-a-half pounds of processed whelks per person, per day. No one may purchase or receive more than two-and-a-half gallons in the shell or two-and-a-half pounds of processed whelks from Cayman for each day. Chi-

Honouring Those Who Served

The annual Remembrance Sunday ceremony in Grand Cayman will be held at the Cenotaph outside Elmslie Memorial United Church in George Town on Sunday, 10 November 2019.

The Cayman Brac ceremony will run simultaneously and will take place in front of the War Memorial Cenotaph in Stake Bay.

The events, which are open to the public, serve to pay tribute to Cayman's local veteran heroes who have sacrificed so much to preserve our way of life and to those who lost their lives at sea. The annual events always create a palpable feeling of pride amongst all who attend.

The events start precisely at 10.45 a.m. and attendees and participants are asked to be assembled and seated by 10.30 a.m.

Some activities planned include the opening parade led by the Royal Cayman Islands Police Services Band followed by contingents from the Royal Cayman Islands Police Services, the Fire Service, Her Majesty's Prison Service, Girls' Brigade, the Scouts, Cadet Corps, the Seventh Day Pathfinders, the Lions Club of Grand Cayman, and the Lions Club of Tropical Gardens. The Cayman Islands Veterans Association contingent will also join the Parade.

Education spending high, but outcomes are still low aries, wages, pension and healthcare), maintenance of school buildings and student transportation costs. However, there needed to be a better understanding of the link between use of resources and performance, the report said. It said that the average cost per student in public schools was 66 per cent higher than the average cost per student in private schools; and was the second-highest cost per student in 2015 when compared to 33 OECD countries.

Even though Government spend on education was such a large part of its overall budget and even though Cayman spends more on its students than most OECD countries, the Ministry of Education still struggled with fundamental problems affecting the education of Cayman's youth.

The report highlighted a number of worrying issues, for example, student/teacher ratios (size of classes) were less than the targets set by Government; the STRs were also lower than regional and most international comparators. There were significant levels of under-performance remaining across all subjects and analysis of attainment data at both primary and secondary school levels showed underperformance against expectations, gaps in attainment across public schools and significant performance gaps between genders. Following a series of comparative studies, it was found that students in English public schools performed better at both primary and secondary school levels. Other big concerns included the fact that truancy rates were high and had increased over the past five years and over the five years to 2018, the attainment of primary school students with special education needs (SEN) declined significantly in all subjects except writing.

"It is important that the Government develop a strategy for SEN that provides a clearer evidence base for the level and type of its investment in SEN and a clearer picture of how it expects educational performance to improve," the report said.

Other worries included no overall strategy for parental engagement.

"We found that a recent policy was developed and implemented without sufficient parental engagement or consultation with teachers," the OAG stated.

As far as the education system creating an adequate basis for Caymanian employment went, the report found the system lacking on many points.

"The Government... has a strategic priority to ensure full employment for Caymanians. However, we found that there is no clear link between the vision and priorities for education and the Government's economic priorities," the report stated. "The Government has highlighted the importance of vocational trades in the Cayman Islands and the importance of encouraging young Caymanians to take up these trades, but there is no national strategy for technical and vocational education and training."

The OAG found that there was no long-term strategic plan for education that set out the goals, objectives and success measures, including outcomes to achieve the overarching strategic broad outcome. It said that a long-term approach was needed for education, as it could take a number of years for changes in policy and activity to have an impact.

Verdant Isle. Hosts Job Fair

Representatives from the Verdant Isle Group hosted a job fair at the Margaritaville on Tuesday, 28th of October.

The event featured a presentation for tour operators, as well as booths for job seekers wishing to launch a career in the cruise industry. An area for business persons to proffer ideas for possible partnerships was also facilitated.

According to Representatives on hand some 200 construction jobs would be available in addition to opportunities for locals to work on Cruise Ships.

People in the Cayman Islands have - by now - become familiar with the Verdant Isle. Group, whom have been chosen by the Cayman Islands Government to carry out the development of a controversial Cruise Port.

T.J. O'Sullivan, Director of Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd., (one of the members that make up the Verdant Isle. Group one of the members that make up the Verdant Isle. Group) spoke with the Caymanian Times about the port project.

"We are really neither here nor there with this project and at the end of the day, if the Caymanian people say they don't want it, then we are absolutely fine with that, explained Mr. O'Sullivan.

"This is a good deal for the Caymanian people and there is no risk for them. We are financing the project entirely. If the loan defaults it's Verdant that is going to be responsible.

"As you may know, there is an inability for the Cayman Islands Government to spend large amounts of money in their budget." (a precautionary measure put in place by the United Kingdom to rein in spending)

In making his case for the new Cruise Port and Cargo Facility, Mr. O'Sullivan explained that the current cargo pier was built in 1977 and at that time it saw C$50 million dollars in imports. "...Last year the same facility did 1 billion dollars and there has been no investment to upgrade during that time."

► TJ O'Sullivan makes the case for a new Cruise Berthing Facility to tour operators who attended the job fair

Mr. O'Sullivan said one of the special features of the project was that the Verdant Isle. Group would be designing, building, financing and maintaining the project. This is different than how these projects are usually done in that these kinds of arrangements are usually design, build and operate initiatives.

"We want to do this because Cayman is such a desirable location. That is why multiple parties want to accommodate this," Noted Mr. O'Sullivan. He added: "The win for us is having our Oasis class ships, which carry our higher spending clients, able to include the Cayman Islands on their journeys."

The Cayman Islands score exceptionally high in two main target areas for the cruise industry, "Satisfaction" and "Appeal", according to Mr. O'Sullivan.

The Cruise Director also revealed that maintenance of the project would cost in the neighborhood of $100 million over 25 years. Verdant Isle is responsible for that cost over 25 years.

season. Those possessing more than the legal limit will also be arrested and prosecuted.

Members of the public are also reminded that Cayman's annual lobster season does not open until 1 December. Individuals may come across lobsters while conching or whelking when it is still closed season for lobsters. Anyone caught possessing locally-caught lobster out of season will also be arrested and prosecuted.

Minister for Environment, the Hon. Dwayne Seymour, stated "We encourage the public to be careful, pay attention to safety, and to respect the catch limits and the rules for our marine protected areas this season."

If anyone sees, or becomes aware of, suspected poaching activity, or suspects someone is purchasing more than the legal daily limits of locally caught conch or whelks, they are asked to call 911. They may also contact DoE enforcement officers directly on Grand Cayman (916-4271), on Cayman Brac (call 911) or on Little Cayman (925-0185).

For more information on open/closed seasons for conch, whelk and other marine life, please visit the DoE website at www.doe.ky or contact DoE Public Education and Outreach Officer Brent Fuller via phone at 244-5984/922-5514 or email brent.fuller@gov.ky

"Customers will be delighted with the wide selection of everyday and speciality products in every department. With the addition of Bay Market Café in the store, we can't wait for customers to sit back and relax with a great cup of coffee and catch up with an old friend or colleague. We're thrilled to open Foster's Camana Bay and welcome the community to their new neighbourhood supermarket," he confirmed.

Their vegan and vegetarian products have grown in number and shoppers can also expect an expanded meat and seafood department that includes an ice table in seafood for fresh fish and oysters (which they'll shuck for you) and a dry aged beef case. This, along with the largest cheese selection on island, a florist and floral and plant department, expanded bulk section with nuts, grains, snacks and nut butters and a great deal more.

Foster's Bay Market Café, will now be located within Foster's Camana Bay, so shoppers can choose from coffee and juice, all day breakfast and light fare, gourmet meals, gourmet sandwiches, fresh pasta, pizza, Asian wok and teppanyaki grill, sushi, a grill bar, salad bar, soup bar, internationally and locally inspired hot bar, gourmet sweets and pastries and more. There will be space inside and out to dine.

"As soon as shoppers set foot in Foster's, they'll feel a sense of welcome and community that our founders built the business on, and we've strived to improve upon ever since. Our customers care about value, selection and quality, and because it's important to them, it's important to us too. We're here to provide a service, and a shopping experience, that puts a smile on our customer's faces and we're so pleased to be able to welcome the community to the next chapter of Foster's," Julian added.

NORTH SIDE DISTRICT HERITAGE DAY CANCELLED

The Pirates Week Office in conjunction with the North Side District Heritage Committee advises the public the Heritage Day originally scheduled for Thursday, 14 November and all events associated with the North Side District Heritage Committee have been cancelled for this year.

The Pirates Week Office assists committees in the various districts with hosting of events as part of the festival. However, due to circumstances beyond the office's control, a decision has been taken to cancel the events in North Side for the 2019 festival.

"We regret that we have had to arrive at such a decision, but this was done after consultation with the relevant stakeholders. The North Side District Heritage Committee, which is responsible for making the necessary arrangements, has become inactive. As such, we have decided to adjust our calendar rather than hurriedly attempting a haphazard event at this late stage that does not meet the standards that have become associated with the North Side District Day event," said Pirates Week Executive Director, Melanie McField.

Due to the absence of a functioning committee in North Side, the district will not be represented in the Float Parades or the District Heritage Ambassador Heritage Costume Competition.

Among the stakeholders with whom discussions have been held was North Side MLA, Ezzard Miller, who agrees with the decision.

"I am understandably disappointed that there will be no Pirates Week events to attract people to the wonderful district of North Side this year. However, having been briefed on the situation, I appreciate that a call had to be made," said Mr Miller.

"I am hoping that coming out of this situation, we will be able to attract people with a genuine love of our Caymanian heritage from our district to stand up and be counted to ensure that North Side is represented in all aspects of the national festival going forward," Mr Miller added.

The rest of the Pirates Week calendar remains unchanged.

establishing the Presbyterian ministry and school in Bodden Town.

Ms Maud, Ms Isobel and Ms Evi are all members of the Bodden Town Presbyterian church today and they manned the fish fry stall at the Bodden Town Heritage Day, cooking up platefuls of delicious looking (and smelling) snapper and mahi mahi. The ladies said they regularly cooked for church events and events such as the Pirate's Week district heritage days.

As well as all the great food, there was music, clever recycled artwork and handmade jewellery for sale and Ms Eileen McLaughlin was on hand to show visitors the intricacies of the age-old skill of weaving thatch and making it into baskets. One basket alone takes 15 hours to make, she confirmed. 🌐

Specialist offshore insolvency and restructuring firm, Kalo, has announced the appointment of Elizabeth (Liz) Mackay as a managing director in the firm's Cayman Islands office.

Liz's career in the insolvency and restructuring sector spans a 26 year period and includes more than 10 years' experience as partner / managing director with an international insolvency firm in the UK.

She specialises in complex insolvency and restructuring and has extensive experience in conducting both financial and strategic business reviews for a wide range of stakeholders in contentious situations. Liz focuses on corporate restructuring, including formal insolvencies and turnaround.

Liz is a Licensed Insolvency Practitioner, a Fellow of the Insolvency Practitioners Association, a Fellow of the Association of Business Recovery Professionals, a Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and a Fellow of the Joint Insolvency Examination Board. She also holds a Law degree with Honours and is a recent member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland's Insolvency Technical Committee.

Gordon MacRae, CEO of Kalo, commented: "We are delighted to have someone of Liz's calibre join us in Cayman. Not only is she an extremely accomplished and experienced insolvency professional, but she also has vast experience as a visionary, people-focused team leader and business developer. Her approach fits well with Kalo's ethos and values and we look forward to welcoming her energetic leadership to our senior management team."

Liz MacKay added: "The opportunity to join a dynamic and collegiate business, like Kalo, was very attractive and culturally a great fit for me. Kalo has an excellent reputation in terms of the results they achieve for clients and also as a collaborative and engaging workplace. I look forward to working with Gordon and the rest of the Kalo team to continue to build their excellent reputation."

Kalo has been involved in several high-profile international insolvency and restructuring matters over the past year. In April, Kalo CEO, Gordon MacRae, was appointed a joint interim receiver over the XiO Fund I LP by order of the High Court of the Hong Kong Second Administrative Region. Since that time recognition of this appointment has been achieved in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and in the UK. In July, Kalo helped secure a settlement with Madoff trustee, Irving Picard, which means investors in the Kingate Funds will be

Kiwanis Club installs new board

Members of the Kiwanis Club of Grand Cayman installed their new board and officers for the 2019-2020 year on Sunday 6 October at their annual installation dinner.

Duane Turner was elected as the club's new president, taking over from Nicola Murray.

Other officers elected were: president-elect Winsome Radcliffe, vice president Jessica Kozaily, secretary Linda Chapman-Key, assistant secretary Martin Couch, treasurer Cavell Goulbourne, assistant treasurer Annabelle Dela Cruz-Ting and directors Ruud van der Pluijm, Daniella McGowan, Kadi Pentney and Emily-Rose Cross.

"It's truly my honor to serve this year as club president" said Mr. Turner in a press release. We're a club that has been actively serving the community, especially where school children are concerned, since 1975. Yet, we feel like a best kept secret. I think the time has come for that secret to be leaked. One of my goals this year is to push for us to get more recognition and exposure island-wide."

Outgoing president Ms. Murray was awarded the title "Distinguished President" for her leadership and dedication during her presidency.

Roger Bodden, a distinguished past president and current Chair for Sponsored Youth, was awarded "Kiwanian of the Year" for his dedication, passion, and promotional work of our high school Key Clubs.

Officers, Ruud van der Pluijm (Director), Linda Chapman-Key (Secretary) and Cavell Goulbourne (Treasurer) were all presented with a "Presidents Award" for their outstanding dedication and service to the club.

Leisa's passion for ministry's success leads to EOM

Leisa Welcome from the Ministry of Community Affairs (MCA) is the Cayman Islands Government Employee of the Month (EOM) for September.

Ms Welcome, a Personal Assistant and Officer Manager, captured the award for Delivering an Outstanding Customer Experience, making it the second consecutive month that an MCA staff member snapped up the coveted EOM Award.

Ms Welcome is known for having taken on many roles within the Ministry without complaint, and being very passionate about her work and the success of the Ministry. The nature of her work requires her to continuously prioritise and dynamically adjust her work schedule daily, which often proves to be very stressful. However, even on the most hectic days, she remains calm, soft spoken, polite, organised and helpful.

Ms Welcome is often required to work with some of the most vulnerable persons in our community. She is known for working exceptionally long hours to ensure that the needs of those persons are met with great care and concern.

The Deputy Governor, when presenting the award to Ms Welcome, stated:

"You take great pride in being the first face and voice of the Ministry when it comes to dealing with seamen/ex-servicemen who have been the backbone of our Islands for many years. You readily give your time and patience to these clients, and go out of your way to explain and outline the criteria to qualify for benefits.

"Additionally, you often meet these clients on the ground floor of the GAB rather than requiring them to come upstairs.

While this can be time consuming, you perform your duties with a smile and genuine care for your clients."

Chief Officer Teresa Echenique heaped kudos on the EOM by also acknowledging Ms Welcome's passion and her dedication to go above and beyond her duties to ensure the betterment of the Government and the country.

"The mission of the Ministry of Community Affairs is to 'Empower People and Enhance Lives', which is linked to the strategic broad outcome #6 - Stronger Communities and Support for the Most Vulnerable. Ms Welcome enhances this service through her work within the Ministry," the Chief Officer said. 🌐

Antigua Government Gets Nod to Pump US$15 Million into LIAT, But There Will be Pay Cuts and Other Changes

Parliament has given the Gaston Browne-led administration the green light to secure a US$15.8 million loan to buy additional shares in the Antigua-based regional carrier LIAT.

But the Prime Minister has served notice that the financing will come with cuts, including pay reductions.

A resolution allowing the government to obtain a loan from Banco del ALBA was passed yesterday in the House of Assembly. Browne, who is also Finance Minister, said he negotiated the 10-year loan on September 11.

"This loan will be termed out over a period of 10 years, at six per cent per annum, with an annual repayment of about EC $6 million — about US $2.2 million a year," he said.

"A condition of this new capital would be that there has to be cuts including a reduction in salary and wages. I'm pretty sure that there'll be some changes even with the directorship of LIAT. We have to make sure that we have a cadre of competent people and we may even create the space for members in the private sector as well to participate."

"So, the programme calls for recapitalisation with a simultaneous restructuring of LIAT. So, we'll be focusing on reducing expenses while at the same time increasing revenue," Browne added.

Of the US$15.8 million loan amount, US$15 million will be utilized to recapitalize LIAT while the other US$800,000 will be utilized to cover "the transactional expenses at a percentage of two per cent, as well as a 1 per cent FFE contribution", which is a contribution to the bank's equity.

In addition, the Antigua and Barbuda government will be required to contribute to a social fund.

Earlier this year, Antigua and Barbuda was in negotiations with the Barbados government, the largest single shareholder of the financially-troubled airline, on purchasing the majority of its 49.4 per cent shares.

But earlier this month, Browne said he had told his Barbadian counterpart, Mia Mottley that his government no longer wanted to buy the shares and would instead invest in the carrier. 🌐

Death Toll in Bahamas from Hurricane Dorian Nears 70

More corpses are found as post-Hurricane Dorian clean up continues in The Bahamas, with the official death toll now at 67.

Director of the National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA), Captain Stephen Russell informed the media on Monday that police had recovered two more bodies in Abaco, which was battered by the Category 5 hurricane on September 1 before the monster storm went on to devastate Grand Bahama.

And he said that as debris clearance continues, it's expected that more bodies will be found.

Russell also disclosed that the missing persons' desk has been deactivated.

There are still 777 people remaining in five shelters in New Providence, Grand Bahama, Deputy Director of Social Services Kim Sawyer also revealed at the press conference.

More than 200 people are still missing. 🌐

Doctor Among Eight Charged in Connection with Murder of Gold Miner in Guyana

A medical practitioner and a mother of two along with two of her relatives were among eight people who appeared in court in Guyana yesterday, facing charges related to the death of a gold miner who was gunned down in the capital earlier this month.

The 33-year-old Dr Alonzo Dos Santos, who is also a second lieutenant in the Guyana Defence Force; Odessa St. Hill, a 37-year-old mother of two and graphic artist who is also the sister of one murder accused and cousin of another; Duncan Vanveild, 36-year-old welder; and taxi driver Keith McKenzie were jointly charged with being an accessory after the fact.

Facing the charge of murdering Deon Stoll were: 38-year-old graphic artist Wayne St. Hill - Odessa's brother; Shane 'Demon' Morgan, a 33-year-old graphic artist and cousin of the St. Hill siblings; Roberto Sankar, a 28-year-old businessman; and Steve Rollox, a 38-year-old taxi driver.

They were all remanded to prison until November 15, 2019 when they next appear in court.

Stoll was shot during a robbery attack outside the El Dorado trading company in Georgetown on October 14. He had engaged in a shootout with the bandits and wounded one of them.

It is alleged that Dr Dos Santos treated the injured robber at Vanveild's home. 🌐
