Caribbean Economic Forum (Overview)

For the first time, on June 25, 2020, four regional central bank Governors will take part in a joint public event that will see them discuss how the Caribbean can rebound from the COVID-19 pandemic. The event is part of the Central Bank of Barbados' monthly Caribbean Economic Forum series that will be livestreamed across the globe via the power of the Internet. The series is expected to attract a wide cross-section of entrepreneurs, business executives, economists, innovators, investors, thought-leaders, academics and media professionals who will participate in the event in order to benefit from the insights, ideas and recommendations being discussed by the forum's expert panel of speakers.

CEF 2020 at a glance

This month's topic, "COVID and Economic Policy: Protecting Jobs, Businesses and the Economy" is designed to specifically address the economic concerns and needs of the Caribbean region as we seek to design and grow our economies during the worst health crisis of our generation.

The first event, featuring four Central Bank Governors, will be held on June 25 at 8:00 p.m. EST, 7:00 p.m. in Jamaica. The four participating Governors are Cleviston Haynes (Barbados), Dr. Gobind Ganga (Guyana), Richard Byles (Jamaica) and Timothy Antoine (Eastern Caribbean Currency Union).

Veteran Caribbean journalist, Julian Rogers, will moderate the discussion and the region's media, and people can pose their questions to the Governors via email questions@centralbank.org.bb, WhatsApp (246) 266-0830 or via www.slido.com, event code CaribbeanEconomicForum

Join us on Tuesday, July 28, 2020 at 8:00 p.m. EST when we discuss 'Reviving Caribbean Tourism' with a panel of seasoned tourism experts.
