Heritage Kitchen: A culinary gem in West Bay

By: Flynn Bush

Originally started by Mr. Tony Powell as a Fish Shop in 1992, the food on the menu consisted basically of fried fish and fritters. Because everyone loves fried fish, and the fact that Mr. Powell's establishment did a good job of serving excellent food of that kind, the small restaurant enjoyed success.

Eventually, Mr. Powell's sister-in-law, Isley Powell-Ebanks, and her sister Josephine Otu-Ebanks, took over the running of the place and The Heritage Kitchen was born. The year was 2011 and it saw the expansion of its culinary offerings. News began to spread among visitors and residents alike of the many different local dishes to be had there; both seafood and land-based dishes. Of course, seafood was always a favorite.

In January 2017, the management of The Heritage Kitchen was passed. As a result of Ms. Isley and Ms. Josephine retiring, the task and privilege of carrying the restaurant forward was given to some family members, Ronaldo and Rosie Garcia. The tradition of great food and friendly service has continued ever since. The restaurant's popularity has grown steadily over time; so much so that even celebrity visitors make it a point to stop by. This has also led to the restaurant being awarded twice as the Travel Choice restaurant of the year, the latest being in 2023.

Mr. and Mrs. Garcia have built upon a strong foundation and have polished and shined the establishment into what it is today. The place has not been expanded size-wise; there is limited available space surrounding it to do so. However, the strengths of the restaurant have remained. Any customer, on any day, can be sure to find delicious food, superbly prepared and beautifully presented. Different types of fish (mahi, snapper, wahoo, etc.) cooked in various ways are always available. Add to those other dishes such as conch fritters, fish soup, lobster, garlic butter shrimp and other dishes and it is enough to make your mouth water just reading about it. What is even better is to make the trek to West Bay and experience The Heritage Kitchen for yourself. As the delectable food melts away in your mouth, your worries will drift away as well; at least for the time being.

The Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants Charity Golf Tournament last month raised $9,000 for a pair of local nonprofits.

Twenty-two teams registered for the event, which is an annual fundraiser aligning with CIIPA's strategic objectives and goal of proactively developing avenues for membership engagement in the community.

"CIIPA members have once again answered the call to give back," CIIPA Chief Executive Officer Sheree Ebanks said. "It's important for us to provide information and resources for our membership

CIIPA donated $7,500 to YMCA of the Cayman Islands and $1,500 to the Children and Youth Services (CAYS) Foundation, a government-run organisation aimed at providing 24-hour residential care for at-risk children.

The golf tournament is organised by CIIPA's Social Committee. PwC won the team title.

RE/MAX CAYMAN ISLANDS DONATES $10,000 TO JUBILATE AND ALEX PANTON FOUNDATION

► Alex Panton Foundation Donation 2023

For over 30 years RE/MAX Cayman Islands has been dedicated to giving back to the community. Every single agent in our office contributes to our charity fund which supports the sponsorship of annual events such as Stride for Cancer, the Breast Cancer Foundation's Light up the Night and the Flowers Sea Swim, among many others.

This year the charity fund raised additional revenue which enabled RE/MAX Cayman Islands to make two substantial donations at the end of 2023.

Jubilate

RE/MAX Cayman Islands donated $5,000 to Jubilate to fund their annual budget for education enrichment supplies.

Jubilate launched in January 2016 as a social outreach afterschool programme with an emphasis on music; specifically, building an orchestra. Following a time of high gang violence in the community, Jubilate was born out of a desire to offer those children in our community with the fewest resources and greatest need an outlet to develop their talents, confidence, strong values, and a true belief that they can achieve great things in their life.

Jubilate is offered daily, from 3:00pm - 6:00pm, throughout the 10-month school year, to students aged 8+ from the 8 public schools that are east of George Town in Grand Cayman. The programme takes place at the First Baptist Church opposite Lion's Centre, with students transported directly from school. As of the 2022/23 school year, their capacity is 85 (60 primary school students and 25 high school students). Primary school students attend 3 days per week while high school students attend 1 day per week.

Alex Panton Foundation

RE/MAX Cayman Islands donated $5,000 to the Alex Panton Foundation to sponsor their Community Mental Health Presentation Series starting Q1 2024.

The Alex Panton Foundation is a Non-Profit Organisation with the primary objective of raising awareness of mental illnesses affecting children and young adults in the Cayman Islands with a particular focus on anxiety and depression.

This Foundation has been established in memory of Alex Panton, who succumbed to the effects of severe depression at the age of 16.

The Alex Panton Foundation aims to provide hope and resources to friends, family, teachers, classmates, and carers to help save the lives of children and young adults struggling with mental illness.

The Community Mental Health Presentation Series offers "by request" presentations or workshops for the general public which covers topics such as stress management, self-harm, and suicide prevention, bullying, nutrition, and anxiety.

Minister for Sustainability & Climate Resiliency tours Department of Environment

By Hannah Reid Ford, MSc

Newly appointed Minister for Sustainability & Climate Resiliency Hon. Katherine Ebanks-Wilks recently visited the Department of Environment (DoE) to tour the facilities and meet with staff.

During her visit, Minister Ebanks-Wilks learned more about the important work of the Operations, Enforcement, Marine Research, Terrestrial Research and Environmental Management sections of the DoE.

"The DoE is made up of a number of small but mighty teams that work tirelessly to protect our natural resources for the benefit of current and future generations. I would like to thank the leadership and staff of the DoE for their hard work and continued dedication. With a staff complement that is 90% Caymanian, it is inspiring to see the next generation of scientists, conservation officers, and environmental managers playing such an important role in the preservation of our living heritage," Minister Ebanks-Wilks said.

Department of Environment Director, Gina Ebanks-Petrie welcomed Minister Ebanks-Wilks and was eager to share some of the achievements and challenges of the DoE team. "I'm always so proud to introduce our team of dedicated professionals who advocate for Cayman's native species and habitats in so many critical ways," she said "but I also know how challenging it can be for people to fully understand some of the more technical or procedural aspects behind our research, operations and advice so it was a pleasure to be able to spend time with our new Minister to dive a little deeper into what we do."

The tour also included a visit to the DoE's recently unveiled Coral Spawning Lab. Sponsored by a private sector donation from the Fosters Group, the Lab enables the DoE team to artificially stimulate spawning events, study resilient coral specimens, and, potentially, reseed local reefs with new corals.

Minister Ebanks-Wilks said local research is an important part of building resiliency to global climate change.

"With rising temperatures causing more frequent and severe coral bleaching events, our beautiful reef systems are increasingly being impacted by climate change. Not only do our coral reefs support our fisheries and our tourism product, they also protect our communities from the impacts of storms. Protecting our reefs protects our people,' she said.

SteppingStones Announce Pam Abbott as New Managing Director

The Investors in People Platinum accredited recruitment consultancy announces Pam Abbott as Managing Director of SteppingStones Recruitment. Founded in 2005 by Milly Serpell, Pam was hired by SteppingStones in March 2008 and quickly established herself as a key member of the team. Having been an integral part of the business throughout its growth, Pam is the ideal candidate to take over the reins from Milly who will continue to serve as Director of the organization.

Having initially focused on the corporate immigration side of the business, Pam's role has evolved across the years and in 2020 she was promoted to General Manager of SteppingStones. Since that time, Pam has been instrumental in the day-to-day operations of the firm and is the key point of contact for both clients and internal employees. "I could not feel prouder of Pam and her journey with SteppingStones. She embodies all our core values, is committed to excellence, and I trust completely that she will continue to uphold the incredible reputation that SteppingStones has built, with professionalism, integrity and fun at the heart of everything she does," said Milly Serpell. "Pam has an incredible vision for this very special organization over the next 2 to 5 years and I am excited to see her ideas come to fruition," said Milly. "She is the beating heart of SteppingStones and I very much look forward to watching the business continue to thrive under her leadership".

Saffery Trust celebrates 95% staff retention rate

Saffery Trust has announced an average 95% staff retention rate in 2023 across its offices in the Cayman Islands, Dubai, Guernsey and Switzerland. The private client firm opened its first international office in Guernsey in 1977 and now employs over 120 staff across four jurisdictions. Coinciding with its 2023 rebrand, Saffery Trust launched its Employee Value Proposition, formalising its people-first approach, with a continued focus on the health and wellbeing of team members, as well as supporting them in shaping their career paths. As the "global recruitment crisis" continues, Saffery Trust teams are growing; new joiners were welcomed in each of the firm's offices, and its Cayman team doubled in size through 2023. Initiatives to promote wellbeing are common practice within the firm, including "lunch'n'learn" events with a wide range of guest speakers, green projects including tree-planting, zero-waste workshops and active travel challenges, and a flexible working policy to promote a healthy work-life balance. A group of staff in Guernsey also recently undertook training to become Mental Health First Aid Champions, to offer support to all other team members and signpost to relevant services. This support is running in conjunction with 24/7 support services through an Employee Assistance Programme. Saffery Trust Managing Director, Nick Batiste, said the 95% retention rate was a testament to the firm's prioritisation of its team members.

"When it comes to clients, intermediaries and our staff, people are at the centre of the Saffery Trust approach. We are committed to putting the right people in the right place within the firm, and to ensuring everyone has opportunities to grow and fulfil their potential." "We have a culture of longevity at Saffery Trust, regularly celebrating staff with long service awards, including decades of service. The same is true for our connections with our clients, where positive professional relationships are established and maintained over generations as we act as trusted advisors for our clients and their families. "I am extremely proud of our high retention rates, which are a reflection of our inclusive culture, access to opportunities and the friendly and supportive environment that we provide for our growing teams."

Primary Boys Basketball Preseason Rally

► Prep Celebrates Victory on Court

► First Baptist with Their Runners-Up Medals

► Cayman Prep With Their Championship Medals

By: Flynn Bush

One day after the successful and exciting Girls Inter-Primary Basketball Preseason Basketball Rally, the John Gray Gym was again rocking on January 10th. This time, it was the boys' turn as teams from various schools fought for their chance to hoist the trophy and to wear their "Champion" gold medals. After the girls' tournament, there was much anticipation. The day's action would not disappoint.

From the outset, teams took the court with determination and every point was hard fought, it seemed. Athletes fighting through sweat, aches, and shortness of breath was a common sight. Some of these players were obviously newcomers to the game, and some others displayed evidence that they had previously been through this experience. Regardless of the level of experience or skill, they all played with heart. Ms. Kerry Jones, Senior Primary PE Teacher and Inter-Primary Sports Coordinator was very pleased with everyone's efforts. "It was exciting to see the boys play today. They all played with heart."

As the tournament progressed, the teams started to separate themselves and soon the stage was set for the championship game. Despite the toughness of the other teams, First Baptist Academy and Cayman Prep had reached the finals unscathed and were ready for one more battle. As expected, the action was fast and intense. Momentum seemed to switch back and forth, and at the end of regulation the score was tied. That meant the teams would play a period of 'sudden death' where the first team to score would be declared the winner. Commonly called the 'Golden Bucket or Golden Basket', this period can be nerve racking for players, and for coaches and spectators alike.

As the play resumed, the players from both teams seemed to find their high gear and were playing with an extra amount of gusto. There were several shots taken by each team that missed the mark; some that rattled the rim and raised the blood pressure of those watching, for a split second. Then, there was one particular shot, taken from the left of the basket that found its mark and the Cayman Prep players broke out in mass celebration, players from the bench joining in the massive blob of jubilation on the court.

It was an exciting end to what had proven to be a very entertaining tournament. "This was a very exciting rally, and all of the games were close throughout the day," Ms. Jones remarked. "In fact, a lot of the games had to go down to a 'golden basket' to decide the game winner. This is a good preview of what is to come in the season ahead." As Ms. Jones said, if this preseason rally is any indication, the entire season will be filled with tense, exciting moments and inspired, motivated play from the athletes.
